

Belzona Repairs 82 Expansion Joints on a Primary Settlement Tank

ID: 7529

Industry: Water / Wastewater

Customer Location: Bedford, UK

Application: FPA-Floor Problem Areas

Application Date: August 2017

Substrate: Concrete

Products: * • Belzona 4111 (Magma-Quartz) ,
* • Belzona 2211 (MP Hi-Build Elastomer) ,

Problem

Existing expansion joints had failed. The customer then tried to use a cementitious material to repair them but this also cracked and failed.

Photograph Descriptions

- * 1. The settlement tank. ,
- * 2. A damaged expansion joint. ,
- * 3. Nosings rebuilt using a former. ,
- * 4. Completed expansion joint. ,

Application Situation

The customer's Primary Settlement Tank was unable to operate efficiently and the tank's arm was struggling to rotate, which could have caused further damage to the equipment.

Application Method

The nosings of the joints were rebuilt using Belzona 4111 and Belzona 2211 used as the expansion joint material. The application

For more examples of Belzona Know - How In Action, please visit <https://khia.belzona.com>

ISO 9001:2015

Belzona products are

FS 695214

manufactured under an ISO

ISO 14001:2015

9000 Registered Quality

EMS 695213

Management System.

www.belzona.com

was carried out in accordance with Belzona System Leaflets FPA-5 and FPA-7.

Belzona Facts

The primary settlement tanks' original concrete design failed within four years due to water ingress. Belzona materials are resistant to this type of damage and so will last for many more years to come. This was one of the clients only options to keep the equipment in operation.

For more examples of Belzona Know - How In Action, please visit <https://khia.belzona.com>

ISO 9001:2015
FS 695214
ISO 14001:2015
EMS 695213

Belzona products are
manufactured under an ISO
9000 Registered Quality
Management System.

www.belzona.com

